

CALL FOR TENDERS FOR THE

O. C. Zienkiewicz Award for Young Scientists in Computational Engineering Sciences

and

J. L. Lions Award for Young Scientists in Computational Mathematics

Awarded by the European Community on Computational Methods in Applied Sciences and Engineering (ECCOMAS)

GENERAL RULES

- 1) Candidates for the Awards are European scientists below 40 years of age in the year the Award is granted.
- 2) Award candidates can be nominated by themselves or by a third person or a group of persons. A Curriculum Vitae of the candidate should be enclosed with the nomination.
- 3) The Awards will be granted either at the different ECCOMAS conferences on Computational Fluid Dynamics and Computational Solid and Structural Mechanics or at ECCOMAS Congresses.
- 4) The Award Committee is formed by the ECCOMAS Managing Board.
- 5) Decision on the selection of awardees will be taken by majority rule of the Award Committee members.
- 6) The Awards will include a Diploma, free registration to the ECCOMAS 2008 Congress and a sum of 2000 Euros for travelling and accommodation expenses support.
